OF DEATHS, that annually occur, are caused by Preventable Diseases, and the greater portion of those complaints would, if Radway's Ready Relief or Pills, (as the case may require), be administered when pain or uneasiness or slight sickness is experienced, be exterminated from the system in a few hours. PAIN, no matter from what cause, is almost instantly cured by the Ready Relief. In cases of Cholera, Diarrhoea, Cramps, Spasms, Bilious Colic, in fact all Pains, Aches and Infirmities either in the Stomach, Bowels, Bladder, Kidneys, or the Joints, Muscles, Legs, Arms, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Fever and Ague, Headache, Toothache, &c., will in a FEW MINUTES yield to the soothing influence of the Ready Relief.

Sudden Colds, Coughs, Influenza, Diphtheria, Hoarseness, Sore Throat, Chills, Fever and Ague, Mercurial Pains, Sciatic Fever, &c., &c., take from four to six of Radway's Pills, and also take a teaspoonful of the Ready Relief in a glass of warm water, sweetened with sugar or honey; bathe the throat, head and chest with Ready Relief, (if Ague or Intermittent Fever, bathe the spine also) in the morning you will be cured.

How the Ready Relief Acts!

In a few minutes the patient will feel a slight tingling irritation, and the skin becomes reddened; if there is much distress in the stomach, the Relief will assist nature in removing the offending cause, a general warmth is felt throughout the entire body, and its diffusive stimulating properties rapidly course through every vein and tissue of the system, arousing the sluggish and partially paralyzed glands and organs to renewed and healthy action, perspiration follows, and the surface of the body feels incandescent. The sickness at stomach, colds, chills, head-ache, oppressed breathing, the soreness of the throat, and all pains, either internally or externally, rapidly subside, and the patient falls into a tranquil sleep, awakes refreshed, invigorated, cured.

It will be found that in using the Relief externally, either on the spine or across the kidneys, or over the stomach and bowels, that for several days after a pleasing warmth will be felt showing the length of time it continues its influence over the system. Price of R. R. R. BELIEF, 50 cents per bottle. Sold by Druggists and Country Merchants, Grocers, &c.

TYPHOID FEVER.

This disease is not only cured by Dr. Radway's Relief and Pills, but prevented. If exposed to it, put one teaspoonful of Relief in a tumbler of water. Drink this before going out in the morning, and several times during the day. Take one of Radway's Pills one hour before dinner, and one on going to bed.

If seized with Fever, take 4 to 6 of the Pills every six hours, until copious discharges from the bowels take place; also drink the Relief diluted with water, and bathe the entire surface of the body with Relief. Soon a powerful perspiration will take place, and you will feel a pleasant heat throughout the system. Keep on taking Relief repeatedly, every four hours, also the Pills. A cure will be sure to follow. The Relief strengthens, stimulates, soothes, and quiets; it is sure to break up the Fever and to neutralize the poison. Let this treatment be followed, and thousands will be saved. The same treatment in Fever and Ague, Yellow Fever, Ship Fever, Bilious Fever, will effect a cure in 24 hours. When the patient feels the Relief irritating or heating the skin, a cure is positive. In all cases where pain is felt the Relief should be used.

Relief 50 cts.; Pills 25 cts. Sold by all Druggists.

SPECIALLY TO THE HAWAIIAN GAZETTE.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 28, 1868.

The Platform.

The following resolutions, passed in Convention, embrace the platform of the Republican party for the coming campaign:

First—We congratulate the country on the assured success of the reconstruction policy of Congress, as evidenced by the adoption in a majority of the States lately in rebellion of civil rights to all; and we regard it as the duty of the Government to sustain these Constitutional and prevent the people of such States from being reinitiated to a state of anarchy or military rule.

Second—The guarantee by Congress of equal suffrage to all loyal men in the South was demanded by every consideration of public safety, gratitude and justice, and must be maintained; while the question of suffrage for the rebel States properly belongs to the people of those States.

Third—We denounce all forms of repudiation as a national crime, and a national dishonor requires the prompt and complete liquidation in the utmost good faith to our creditors at home and abroad, not only according to the letter, but the spirit of the laws under which it was contracted.

Fourth—It is due to labor and the nation that taxation should be equitized and reduced as rapidly as the national faith will permit.

Fifth—The national debt, contracted as it has been for the preservation of the Union for all time to come, should be extended over a fair period, (and it is our duty) to reduce the rate of interest thereon whenever it can honestly be done.

Sixth—That the Federal Government should not burden the debt so to improve our credit that capitalists will seek to lend us money at lower rates of interest than the market, and must continue to pay so long as repudiation—partial or total, open or covert—is threatened or suspected.

Seventh—The Government of the United States should be administered with the strictest economy. The corruptions which have been so shamefully nursed and fostered by Andrew Johnson call loudly for radical reform.

Eighth—We profoundly deplore the unadvised and imprudent action of the President in the removal of Andrew Johnson, who has acted treacherously to the people who elected him, and the cause of the Union.

Ninth—That the President, who has usurped high legislative and judicial functions; has refused to execute the law; has used his high office to induce other officers to violate the law; has broken up the executive power to render insecure the lives, property, peace, and liberty of citizens; has abused the pardoning power; has denounced the National Legislature as unconstitutional; has persistently and habitually resisted, by every means in his power, every proper attempt at reconstruction; has been guilty in rebellion; has perverted the public patronage into an engine for wholesale corruption, and has justly been impeached for high crimes and misdemeanors; he is hereby denounced as a traitor to his country, and his removal is demanded by the voice of 25 Senators.

Tenth—The doctrine of Great Britain and other European powers, that because a man is once a subject he is always so, must be resisted at every hazard by the United States, as a relic of feudal times, not authorized by the law of nations, and which our national honor and independence. Naturalized citizens are entitled to be protected in all their rights of citizenship, and to be treated as natives-born. No citizen of the United States, native or naturalized, must be liable to arrest or imprisonment by any foreign power for acts done in his own country, and if so arrested and imprisoned, it is the duty of the Government to interfere in his behalf.

Eleventh—Of all who were faithful in trials of the late war, there were none more fitted for special honor than the brave soldiers and sailors who fought the battles of Gettysburg and Vicksburg, and who, by their valor and courage, and imperiled their lives in the defense of the country. The bounties and pensions appropriated by law for these brave defenders of the Union should be paid, and should not be forgotten. The widows and orphans of the gallant dead be wards of the people, a sacred legacy bequeathed to the United States.

Twelfth—Foreign immigration in the past has added so much to the wealth and resources of our country, and has been the cause of all our national greatness, that it should be fostered by a liberal and just policy.

Thirteenth—This Convention declares its sympathy with all oppressed peoples who are struggling for their rights.

Fourteenth—The numerous cowardly assassinations, and attempted assassinations of British subjects by Irishmen, whether countenanced by the Fenian Brotherhood as an organization or not, are considered to have grown out of that agitation, and are regarded as a great injury to the country. A case that asks for the murderers' sympathy, is integrally damned—rotten at the roots—and can never flourish among a civilized, Christianized and enlightened people.

It is reported that the Brotherhood contemplate another raid upon Canada, and are making preparations to secure its success. In the meantime, having received intimations of such an intention, the Canadians are making preparations to receive the invaders, as Tom Corwin said he would have received the Americans in 1848, had he been a Mexican, to wit: "With bloody hands, to the party in accordance with the purpose, and far more pungent as a satire upon the instability of human character and the uncertainty of human expectations.
